Earn University Graduate Course Credit

All Course attendees can earn three graduate course credits, in addition to ACS CEU credits, from the Duquesne University Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry or Environmental Science and Management program in the Bayer School of Natural and Environmental Sciences. To take advantage of the option, you will have to pay an additional tuition fee and you will be required to write a paper and take a final exam. You can also take the course for a letter grade, pass/fail or audit basis. For more information, please call Amy Johnson at (412) 396-6339 (or contact her on the World Wide Web at http://nexus.chemistry.duq.edu/snes/index.html).
